

IT Infrastructure Business Resilience Consulting Services for IBM AIX and Power Servers

Skills and expertise to help you increase the business value from your Power Systems investment

Without a suitable assessment, you may never find unexposed vulnerabilities and resiliency gaps until they happen to you. But with this one day onsite consulting services, you will be in a position to identify the gaps and take your organization to a next level in terms of adopting right approach to business resilience.

This service is consisting of ten categories that will cover organizational existing setup of infrastructure based on IBM AIX and Power server running mission critical applications.

This consulting service is designed on the basis that you have got nothing to lose and everything to gain. At the end of this service a detailed report will be furnished followed by high level recommendations and suggestions by IBM Certified Solutions Expert – Dynamic Infrastructure Technical Leader and IBM Certified Specialists – Business Resilience.

Ten categories for evaluation

- Testing – general practice adopted by the customer for their environment
- Monitoring – Tools used by the customers to monitor their environment

- Operating System – Preventive measures taken by the customer
- Awareness and Support – IBM Hardware and Software subscriptions and general warranties
- Availability Profile – Practices adopted to maintain high availability by eliminating SPOF's
- Firmware – Consistency in maintaining checks on all firmware's across the environment
- Virtualization – How effective is your virtualization environment
- Outage History – Maintaining a history including both planned and unplanned downtimes
- Health Checks – Practices adopted in performing scheduled checks across the system
- Client Skills – Clients ability to protect their environment

Business-driven risks

- Unmanageable heaves in business
- Overall systems downtime impact

Data-driven risks

- Data theft
- Data loss
- Interrupted access to data

Event-driven risks

- Overall power outages
- Communications disruptions
- Natural and man made disasters

For addition information please contact:

Techlink Communications
111-B/Block-2
Suite 1A
Mezzanine Floor
Khalid-Bin-Waleed Road
Karachi-75400
Pakistan

info@tlcpak.com

www.tlcpak.com

For additional details on other services, please visit:
<http://www.tlcpak.com/consulting.html>

An outsider's perspective can bring unexpected value to your organization